Christ the King

Jesus is our shepherd,
so what will he always do?

A NEW YEAR OF GRACE

Today, the feast of Christ the King, is the Thirty-fourth and Last Sunday in Ordinary Time. Next Sunday the Church begins a new liturgical year with the First Sunday of Advent. You will notice many changes pointing to this new year of grace.

First, the color of the environment in the church will change. Color these squares to show the change from Ordinary Time to Advent. The color names are scrambled in the squares.

Second, we begin to read from a Gospel written by different evangelists. Unscramble the letters to find out these names, and fill in the blanks.

Finally, you will see a wreath of evergreens, a sign that God’s love is lasting and eternal. The circle shape reminds us that God’s love has no beginning and no end. We will light one of the four candles in the circle each week as we wait for Christmas and the coming of the Light of the world. Color the evergreens and the candles—three purple and one pink.

When you go to church next weekend, look and listen for all of these signs of Advent. They help us to wait patiently for the coming of Jesus.
“Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.”
Matthew 25:40
To enter the kingdom of heaven, you must live your life according to Jesus' teachings.

Directions: Help each of the children get to heaven.
Jesus wants us to take care of each other. What you do for the least, you do for Jesus.

Directions: Fill in the blank with the given words to finish the statements that Jesus said from the Gospel today.

Thanks For Giving

Thanksgiving is approaching and many people will not have a Thanksgiving celebration with their families. There are organizations that prepare and feed the poor and homeless on Thanksgiving Day.

Directions:
1. During this week before Thanksgiving, find out where you could go to volunteer your time in helping feed these needy people their Thanksgiving Meal.
2. If you are unable to actually serve the Thanksgiving meal to the poor and homeless, but would like to help feed them, there are groups in your community that collect the donated food and bring it to the places for the Thanksgiving meals.
3. Contact your church to find out what organizations you could volunteer for in your community.
GOD’S WORD FOR CHILDREN!

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

When Jesus comes to judge the living and the dead, He will separate them by those who have lived their lives for others and those who have only lived for themselves.

Ps 23:1-3, 5-6
1 Cor 15:20-26, 28
Mt 25:31-46

Directions: Separate the good apples from the bad apples by drawing an arrow to the basket (good) and the garbage (bad) to show where they should go.
Letters from Heaven

Start with the letter in the shaded square. Draw a path from letter to letter to complete the Biblical statement. Move one square at a time, up, down, right, left and diagonally until all letters are used once. Ignore any black squares.

All people will come to be judged by the Son of Man seated on his glorious throne. He will place the sheep on his right and the ...
