THE INEXPRESSIBLE MYSTERY

The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today's scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It is often heard that today's observance is an "idea feast," and that it is somewhat difficult to grasp its meaning. Other great solemnities, such as Christmas and Easter, have an easily grasped core. Yet, even though the Trinity is at the heart of our faith, firmly declared in the Creed since the Council of Nicea in 325, we are used to having people shrug and say, "Well, it's a mystery."

Perhaps it is more helpful to think of this as a "relationship feast," since it unveils our deepest identity. Dorothy Day was a great social reformer, pacifist, and ardent lover of the Trinity. When people told her that she would certainly be canonized one day (the process is indeed underway), she protested dismissively by remarking that people were raising a fuss just because she was not afraid to talk about God. She loved the Trinity, and treasured the traditional icon for the feast, also known as "The Hospitality of Abraham," depicting the three angelic beings seated at a table tilted toward the viewer and laden with bread and wine. For her, the Trinity revealed the heart of the Catholic life, three C's if you will: community, communication, and communion. That was not an "idea" for her, but what it means to be created in the image of the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist

Next Weekend, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi. On Sunday, June 18th, following the 10:30AM Mass, there will be an outdoor procession around the church grounds. There will be Eucharistic songs while we adore the Blessed Sacrament during the procession. Upon returning into the church, we will have Benediction (blessing with the Eucharist). Please plan to join us in honoring Our Lord truly and corporally present in the Holy Eucharist.

Pray for Pope Francis's Intentions

General: National Leaders

That national leaders may firmly commit themselves to ending the arms trade, which victimizes so many innocent people.

Urgent Intention: Peace and Healing: May the Holy Spirit grant peace to the entire world. May He heal the wounds of war and terrorism, which most recently struck innocent civilians in London. Let us pray for the victims and their families.

The ADULT FAITH FORMATION program is ongoing. We meet every Tuesday at 7:00p.m. here at the Church. This program addresses enhancement of your spiritual growth and increases your knowledge of the teachings of the Catholic Church. Refreshments are provided. Contact Kevin Lucia at 650-740-9071 for further information.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

*Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
I give You thanks and praise
for all Your many gifts and blessings, especially the love You shower upon me.*

*Be with me each moment of this day.
Help me to be mindful of Your never ending love and inspire me to show my love for You by responding generously to the needs of others.*

May I become Your eyes, Your ears, Your hands, Your voice in a world which hungers for love and forgiveness.

*In all that I say, in all that I do this day,
may I do it for You.*

Amen.
