Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Paul uses the phrases below to describe the way the Lord “will come down from heaven” (1 Thessalonians 4:16). Fit the underlined words into the crossword under the stairs. Jesus’ return will be more glorious than we can imagine!

“With a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God …”
CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Catholic Charities in the United States (CCUSA) is a network of charities with headquarters in Alexandria, Virginia. It is one of the largest charities in the United States. Its agencies across the country serve the nation’s poorest and most vulnerable, regardless of their faith. Catholic Charities helps people in need by providing them with things that can make a difference in their lives.

The patron of Catholic Charities is St. Elizabeth of Hungary. Elizabeth was born in 1207 and married a German prince named Louis. Although she had an important position and was very rich, she always thought about the poor she saw around her. She would often give away her clothes and jewelry. She even gave away her own food to feed hungry people. Some people in the kingdom objected to her generosity, but her husband supported her because he believed she was doing the right thing. When Louis died, Elizabeth was left to raise her young children but she continued her work for the poor. With followers of St. Francis, she built hospitals for the poor and elderly. She died in 1231 at the age of 24. Her feast day is November 17. Catholic Charities chose Elizabeth as its patron saint in 2000.

Does Catholic Charities have a local office in your area? Every year a special collection for Catholic Charities is taken up in the United States. Check to see when this occurs in your diocese. You can also donate money to the charity at any time. See the website for details: catholiccharitiesusa.org.
Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

Directions:
1. Use a large piece of butcher paper, poster board, or several pieces of blank paper taped together so it is large enough to cover a door.
2. Gather construction paper, fabric, yarn, ribbon, glitter, paints, markers, glue, tape, scissors, and any other crafty supplies you may have around the house.
3. Lay the paper on a flat surface for the child to work on and when the final project is dry, tape it to the outside of the child’s bedroom door.
